Faith Passages

"Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he."
-Genesis 6:22

"Abram believed in the LORD and the LORD counted it to him for righteousness."
-Genesis 15:6

"...Then the LORD did exactly what he had promised. Sarah became pregnant, and she gave a son to Abraham in his old age. It all happened at the time God had said it would. And Abraham named his son Isaac. Eight days after Isaac was born, Abraham circumcised him as God had commanded. Abraham was one hundred years old at the time.

And Sarah declared, 'God has brought me laughter! All who hear about this will laugh with me. For who would have dreamed that I would ever have a baby? Yet I have given Abraham a son in his old age!'

... Later on God tested Abraham's faith and obedience. 'Abraham!' God called. 'Yes,' he replied. "Here I am."

'Take your son, your only son—yes, Isaac, whom you love so much—and go to the land of Moriah. Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains, which I will point out to you.'

The next morning Abraham got up early. He saddled his donkey and took two of his servants with him, along with his son Isaac. Then he chopped wood to build a fire for a burnt offering and set out for the place where God had told him to go. On the third day of the journey, Abraham saw the place in the distance. 'Stay here with the donkey,' Abraham told the young men. 'The boy and I will travel a little farther. We will worship there, and then we will come right back.'

Abraham placed the wood for the burnt offering on Isaac's shoulders, while he himself carried the knife and the fire. As the two of them went on together, Isaac said, 'Father?' 'Yes, my son,' Abraham replied. 'We have the wood and the fire,' said the boy, 'but where is the lamb for the sacrifice?'

'God will provide a lamb, my son,' Abraham answered. And they both went on together.

When they arrived at the place where God had told Abraham to go, he built an altar and placed the wood on it. Then he tied Isaac up and laid him on the altar over the wood. And Abraham took the knife and lifted it up to kill his son as a sacrifice to the LORD. At that moment the angel of the LORD shouted to him from heaven, 'Abraham! Abraham!' 'Yes,' he answered. 'I'm listening.'

'Lay down the knife,' the angel said. 'Do not hurt the boy in any way, for now I know that you truly, reverently fear God. You have not withheld even your beloved son from me.'

Then Abraham looked up and saw a ram caught by its horns in a bush. So he took the ram and sacrificed it as a burnt offering on the altar in place of his son.

Abraham named the place [Jehovahjireh] 'The LORD Will Provide.' This name has now become a proverb: 'On the mountain of the LORD it will be provided.' Then the angel of the LORD called again to Abraham from heaven, 'This is what the LORD says: Because you have obeyed me and have not withheld even your beloved son, I swear by my own self that I will bless you richly...'"

For I tell you the truth, that whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be removed and be cast into the sea, it shall come to pass – if he does not doubt in his heart, and does believe what he said – he shall have whatsoever he says! Therefore I say unto you, any things you desire, when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you shall have them. And when you are praying, first forgive anyone you haven't – for even the smallest offense – that your Father in heaven will forgive you your trespasses. If you do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in heaven forgive your trespasses." -Mark 11:22-26

And we are certain to receive it, whether or not we follow Jewish customs, if we have faith like Abraham's. For Abraham is the father of all who believe. Faith calls those things that be not as though they were." -Romans 4:16-22

"Hope that is seen is not hope; for what a man seeth, why does he yet hope for? But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it." -Romans 8:24-25

Abraham, who had received God's promises, was ready to sacrifice his only son, Isaac, though God had promised him, "Isaac is the son through whom your descendants will be counted." Abraham assumed that if Isaac died, God was able to bring him back to life again. And in a sense, Abraham did receive his son back from the dead.

It was by faith that Jacob, when he was old and dying, blessed each of Joseph's sons and bowed in worship as he leaned on his staff. And it was by faith that Joseph, when he was about to die, confidently spoke of God's bringing the people of Israel out of Egypt. It was by faith that Moses left the land of Egypt. He was not afraid of the king. Moses kept right on going because he kept his eyes on the one who is invisible.
